

Economic Snapshot

India's GDP grew by an average of almost 7% over the five years prior to the pandemic.

The country's economy ballooned from $288 billion in 1992 to $2.9 trillion in 2019.

Between 2011 and 2015, more than 90 million Indians rose out of extreme poverty.

India has one of the highest global percentages of informal work, estimated to employ up to 90% of all workers.

The top industries include IT services, pharmaceuticals, automobiles, consumer goods, and agriculture.